

Audition Notice
First Things First

By Derek Benfield

3 males + 2 females in their 30's, 1 female in 60's.
Auditions will be held at the theatre, 14 Mains Road, Sunnybank on Saturday 7th March 2020 from 11:30 am.

Another one of Derek Benfield's brilliant scripts which could be classified as a farce. However it's more of a farce in its dialogue than the typical door routine! Many of its laughs come from the fact that the audience know what's going on but the characters are not totally aware of the complicated situation unfolding!

Briefly, Pete and George are good mates, in fact George was Best man at both Pete's weddings! Pete is now happily married to Sarah but is shocked when George arrives to tell him that his first wife Jessica was not killed in the climbing accident as they thought but is alive and well and keen to resume her life with Pete! This naturally leads to hilarious situations as Pete and George find ways out of this desperate plight without upsetting either of Pete's wives or his second wife's dominant mother!

Though our season is 12-27 June, auditions will be held early as the Director will be away for some time in March-April and rehearsals will begin at the end of April and the cast will be expected to have learnt the script during that break between March and April. Therefore auditions will be on Saturday 7 March at 11.30am at the theatre.

Characters as described by the author:

- Sarah (Pete's wife) an appealing young lady with a romantic imagination
- Pete a pleasant middle aged man with a fondness for marriage
- Margot (Sarah's mother) a formidable possessive mother in her sixties
- Geroge (Pete's Best Man) a good friend to have in a crisis
- Jessica (Pete's first wife) an attractive wife with a secret or two
- Alan a good looking man in his late 30's or early 40's with an eye or two for a girl or two

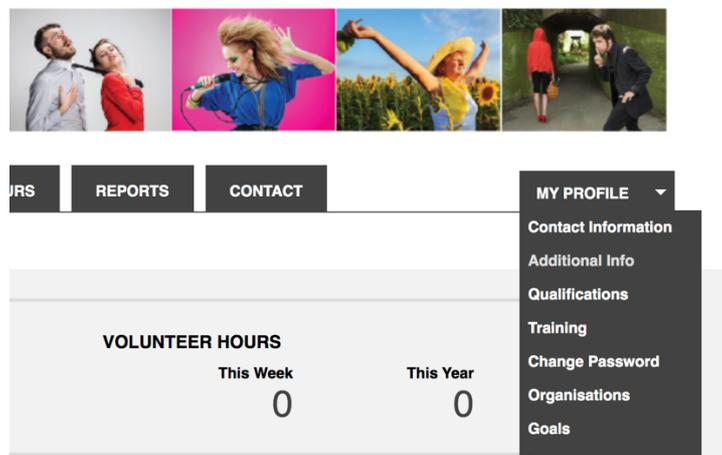

All characters apart from Mother-in-law Margot could range in age through 30's, 40's even to early 50's and will all need to balance the others ages roughly.
